Re-opening of 10-year MGS 8/29 prints BTC of 1.732x

Post-announcement WI was quoted surprisingly tight at 2.90/2.87% and was actively transacted between 2.91-2.79% levels. It subsequently was last quoted at 2.83/2.792% levels. The auction saw slightly weaker bidding metrics below the 2.0x handle with total bids amounting to RM7.8b; and way lower compared to its previous equivalent 10Y recent issuance in February which notched the a BTC ratio of 2.036x then. The total offering consisting of auction size of RM4.5b (no private placement) and was similar to the projected amount under our recent revised auction calendar in April following the presentation of the economic stimulus packages. The summary of tender results are as follows:-

Bid to Cover: 1.732x

High : 2.82%

Average : 2.799%

Low : 2.777%

Cut off : 43.48 %

Huge outstanding amount of the MGS 8/29 may have caused less appetite; but levels are fair and reflect resilience of the local govvnies market...

The tail of 2.1bps was possibly due to lower demand in view of the sizeable existing outstanding amount issued of RM20.5b despite there being no private placement this round. Large institutional investors were less aggressive bidders in this auction exercise. The average yield at 2.799% is lower than its previous reopening awarded @ 2.888% in Feb this year. Nevertheless, yield-wise, this bond is fairly priced when compared to the Islamic equivalent i.e. 10Y benchmark GII 10/30 which was last done at 2.86%. (Note: the yearly historical mean spread between both conventional and previous/current Islamic 10Y benchmarks is between 3-6bps). Up next on the calendar is the re-opening of 3Y GII 5/23 with a forecasted auction size of also RM4.5b.
