Fixed Income Daily Market Snapshot

US Treasuries

- US Treasuries saw renewed rally on flight to safety bids amid steep stock losses, and as an unexpected uptick in unemployment rate to 4.4% in September revived rate cut bets, with probability of a December rate cut rising to 35% at the point of writing, from 29% prior. This overshadowed a bigger than expected increase in September nonfarm payroll (+119k vs -4K) accompanied by a net 2-month revision of -33k. Initial jobless claims averaged 229k for the past 2.5 months till mid-November based on the latest string of releases, hovering near YTD average of 227k, that signaled no material deterioration in the labour market as initially feared. Overall benchmark yields fell 3-6bps across the curve, with the 2-year note yield falling 6bps to 3.53% and 10-year note yield declining 5bps to 4.08% as at Thursday's close. All eyes will be on November PMI today.

MGS/GII

- Local govies traded mixed and tilted to the softer side before ending Thursday rather flat, amid further tapering in secondary market volume to RM4.94bn, compared to RM6.48bn on Wednesday. Overall benchmark yields closed mixed between -1 to +1bp (prior: -4 to +1bps). The benchmark 5Y MGS 5/30 yield retreated another 1bp lower for the day to 3.22% while the yield on the benchmark 10Y MGS 7/35 also declined by 1bp to 3.43%. Trading interest for the day was again led by the off-the-run GII 3/26 with a whopping RM1.42bn changed hands, followed by MGS 7/26. Decent interest was also seen in the benchmark GII 7/28 while sporadic interests were seen across most benchmark MGS and GII. The share of GII trading picked up a 2nd straight day to 61% of overall trading, its highest in five weeks, versus the 48% seen the day before. October CPI is due at noon today and is expected to remain very benign.

Corp Bonds/Sukuk

- Corporate bonds/sukuk saw another day of mixed trading on a quieter Thursday, with secondary market volume halving to RM995m, from RM1.96bn a day ago. Trading was led by the AAA-segment, which accounted for 53% of transacted volume for the day, and the bulk of this was from ALSREIT '11/30 which made its debut at 3.95%, with RM155m dealt. The AA-rated segment trailed with Sunway Treasury '4/32 dominated in this space, last dealt at 3.65-3.82%. In the GG segment, Khazanah '10/27 saw RM100m changed hands at 3.35% (-17bps from previous trade in May).
