5.0 Use of the Auto Reload Facility

- 5.1 TNGSB will automatically reload the predetermined amount to the TNG Chip in the Zing Card with the Auto Reload Value when the stored monetary value in the electronic purse reaches the Preset Threshold. Auto Reload Function is only applicable when the Zing Card is used at the respective toll lanes.
- 5.2 No manual reload is allowed as any manual reload at any toll lanes and/or at the Service Providers will deactivate the Auto Reload Function.
- 5.3 The Cardholder agrees that the Auto Reload Function is limited to one (1) auto reload for every 24 hours.
- 5.4 Cardholder hereby grants consent and authorization to the Issuing Bank to debit the Cardholder's Retail Purchase Account with an amount equal to the Auto Reload Value and the Auto Reload Fee upon the occurrence of any automatic reload transaction, any other chargeable services and Tax incurred thereon with prior notice to the Cardholders.
- 5.5 Notwithstanding anything in these terms and conditions, TNGSB and/or the Issuing Bank shall have the right at any time and at their discretion to disable the Auto Reload Function in respect of any Zing Card on any grounds they consider reasonable (including the cases of Zing Cards reported to have been stolen or forged).
- 5.6 Reactivation of the Auto Reload function for the Zing Card may only be effected by the Cardholder contacting the Issuing Bank's relevant call centre to request for the reactivation of the Auto Reload Function. Forty eight (48) hours after the request for reactivation, the Cardholder may proceed to reactivate the Auto Reload Function in the Zing Card by presenting the Zing Card at selected Touch 'n Go counters specified by TNGSB for reactivation.

6.0 Dispute on Debit Card Transaction

- 6.1 Any dispute by the Cardholder over any transaction in respect of a Zing Card(s) must be reported to the Issuing Bank within 14 days of receipt of the relevant Debit Card statement or online transaction history via HL Connect; failing which the Cardholder shall be deemed to have accepted the entries made up to the date of the last entry in the Debit Card Statement or online account statement as correct and discharge the Issuing Bank from all liabilities.

7.0 Notification of Unauthorized Transactions on Theft, Loss, Replacement Card

- 7.1 Neither TNGSB nor the Issuing Bank shall be liable for any misuse of the Zing Card or for any unauthorized usage of a lost or stolen Zing Card.
- 7.2 For lost or stolen Zing Card, the Cardholder must inform the Issuing Bank within 24 hours at the Issuing Bank's branches by way of written notice to enable the Issuing Bank to notify TNGSB to invalidate the lost or stolen Zing Card.
- 7.3 TNGSB will invalidate the lost or stolen Zing Card to prevent further usage within 24 hours after receiving the notification from the Issuing Bank. The Cardholder shall remain liable for all charges including and not limited to the Auto Reload Function occurring or incurred during the 24 hours' period.
- 7.4 After the reporting of the lost or stolen Zing Card, the Cardholder may apply for a replacement Zing Card and request for refund of the Unutilized Value of the invalidated Zing Card. Subject to the discretion of the Issuing Bank and TNGSB, the Unutilized Value may be refunded through the Cardholder's Retail Purchase Account less the applicable processing fee and all the relevant applicable charges mentioned in Clause 4 above.
- 7.5 The Issuing Bank will be under no obligation to issue a replacement Zing Card to the Cardholder following the lost or theft of a Zing Card.
- 7.6 All requests for Zing Card replacement must be made at any of the Issuing Bank's branch.

8.0 Zing Card Deactivation

- 8.1 Any Zing Card that subsequently becomes Inactive shall be deactivated by TNGSB.
- 8.2 In the event that the Zing Card has been deactivated, a Maintenance Fee will be imposed by TNGSB and such fee shall be deducted from the Unutilized Value once every six (6) months. The Cardholder agrees that this automated deduction will continue until the Unutilized Value in the Zing Card is exhausted.

9.0 Termination

- 9.1 The use of the Zing Card by the Cardholder may be terminated by the Issuing Bank at its sole discretion including but not limited to the following reasons:
- (a) the Cardholder is in breach of any of these terms and conditions and the Debit Card Terms and Conditions;
 - (b) the Zing Card is reported lost or stolen;
 - (c) the right of the Cardholder to use the Zing Card is invalidated;

- (d) the TNG Electronic Payment System of TNGSB fails, is changed, improved, upgraded or modified;
- (e) the Cardholder's Retail Purchase Account is Inactive;
- (f) the Cardholder's Debit Card is terminated for any reason whatsoever; or
- (g) the Cardholder self-initiated termination of the Zing Card.

9.2 Without prejudice to Clause 9.1, the Zing Card is terminated:

- (a) When Cardholder notifies the Issuing Bank of his intention to terminate the validity of the Zing Card and/or the Debit Card at the Issuing Bank's branch, or
- (b) When the Issuing Bank notifies TNGSB of the termination of the Zing Card or the Debit Card.

9.3 Where:-

- (a) The Card's TNG Facility has been terminated, the Unutilized Value thereof shall be refundable to the Cardholder in accordance with Clause 4.5 thereof and
- (b) only the Auto Reload Function in the Zing Card has been disabled or terminated, the Unutilized Value thereof shall for as long as it has not expired or been treated as Inactive, be valid for use until it has a nil stored value balance.

9.4 Notwithstanding anything herein contained, all applications for any refund on a Zing Card must be lodged with the Issuing Bank within ninety (90) days from the date of the lost, theft, cancellation or termination of the Zing Card.

10.0 Changes in Terms and Conditions

10.1 TNGSB and the Issuing Bank reserve the right to add, delete, suspend, vary or amend the use of the Zing Card or terms and conditions contained herein, wholly or in part at its absolute discretion at any time with twenty one (21) calendar days' prior notice. The Cardholder shall not be entitled to claim any compensation against TNGSB and the Issuing Bank for any and all loss and damage suffered or incurred by the Cardholder whether as a direct or indirect result of such act of amendments, cancellation, termination or suspension.

10.2 The Issuing Bank will notify the Cardholder of any amendments or change to these terms and conditions and of the date on which the changes will become effective. All changes and amendments will be advised by advertisements in the press, website, via the mailing of notices, or display of notices at TNGSB or the Issuing Bank, or at any of the TNG sales counters or such other means as TNGSB and/or the Issuing Bank shall deem appropriate in its sole and absolute discretion.

11.0 Notices

Notices to be given by Cardholder to the Issuing Bank shall be in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions of Accounts.

12.0 Disclosure

In addition to the permitted disclosures as set out in the General Terms and Conditions of Account, the Cardholder hereby authorizes the Issuing Bank to disclose any information concerning the Cardholder to TNGSB and any other relevant parties to facilitate the use of the Zing Card or the processing of any transaction effected or to be effected through the use of the Zing Card or for the purpose of recovering any monies due and owing by the Cardholder to the Issuing Bank and TNGSB.

13.0 Earmarking

A sum of RM100 or any other sum as determined by the Issuing Bank from time to time will be earmarked from the Cardholder's Retail Purchase Account. The Cardholder must ensure that the Retail Purchase Account maintains the minimum sum of RM100 at all times failing which the Auto Reload Function will be disabled.

14.0 Pre-loaded amount in TNG Zing Debit Card

A sum of RM50 (or any other value as TNGSB may fix from time to time) will be debited from the Cardholder's Retail Purchase Account as a pre-loaded amount in the Zing Card at the point of issuance of the Zing Card.

15.0 Cancellation of Debit Card

The Zing Card will be automatically cancelled when the Debit Card is cancelled. The Issuing Bank's branch will uplift the sum of RM100 earmarked in the Retail Purchase Account upon the expiry of 14 working days after the receipt of confirmation from the Issuing Bank's head office.
