There are many options for excursions around Moscow that is around your hotel:

Just outside the Kremlin is the famous Red Square. There you can watch the changing of the guard at the Eternal Flame or visit Lenin's Tomb. Explore St. Basil's Cathedral; it is as beautiful on the inside as it is on the outside. A final suggestion for Red Square: visit it in the quietude of the evening and experience it without many tourists around. It is magical!

Old Arbat Street is Moscow's most famous thoroughfare. Old Arbat Street is tourist-oriented and you will be able to find some unique souvenirs here. You may have many artists, musicians or jugglers vying for your attention to entertain you. Old Arbat Street is a pedestrian street, which is perfect for people watching the locals and their lifestyle.

Get a panoramic view of Moscow from Sparrow Hills. This vantage point allows you to get a good look at the expanse of the city. Perfect for photographs, a romantic moment or jotting down thoughts in your travel journal.

If you are fond of shopping, you should go to GUM. It's just off Red Square and is Moscow's most famous shopping centre. As the facade that faces into Red Square, it has maintained its 19th-century appearance. The varieties of shops contained within the area are a testament of how far Russia has come since the Soviet days. You will find all kinds of boutiques represented in GUM for your browsing pleasure.
