Stroll along the European-style esplanade – The Kuching Waterfront – with views across to the majestic Astana (The Palace) and Fort Margherita. Discover hidden treasures as you wander the narrow, bustling streets crammed with ornate temples, markets, historic buildings and traditional Chinese shophouses selling local handicrafts and local delicacies.

Day 2 Kuching - Ulu Batang Ai - Mengiling Longhouse (B/L/D)

Breakfast at hotel. Pick up hotel at 09:00am, depart from Kuching for 4½ hours leisure drive to the Batang Ai Jetty for Ulu Batang Ai River. There will be three stopovers along the route: - Serian - a predominantly Dayak trading town, Chinese farm house to see how pepper and cocoa are grown. Stop for lunch at Lachau. Continue journey through scenic countryside of rice fields, rubber, cocoa, pepper and oil palm plantations, which intermingle with luxuriant tropical rainforest, rivers and mountain ranges. Upon arrival at the river jetty, proceed by motorized longboat for about 45 minutes crossing the Batang Ai Lake, passing through scenic views, rice fields, and fish farms to reach Mengiling Longhouse. Proceed to the longhouse for a warm welcome. Tour the longhouse, watch the natives at work such as making mats, baskets, handicrafts and mending fish nets. Join the natives in their daily chores - feeding their livestock, washing clothes and enjoy a swim in the floating swimming pool. After dinner, socialize with the longhouse dwellers, witness cultural performances and presentation of gifts before retiring for the night at the guesthouse. Overnight at Mengiling Longhouse.
